

June 2020

To Our Valued Customers,

As we see more and more states starting to develop and reveal their plans to reopen, I wanted to take a moment to share with you an update from Wilson Tool International on how we are committed to supporting you and your manufacturing business needs.

Parts are Shipping

Wilson Tool has maintained our manufacturing capabilities and are shipping orders each day. Now is a good time to inventory your tooling and reorder to be ready when business demands ramp up.

Ready to Assist

Our Sales Desk and Sales Engineers are readily available to help with all your application needs and provide you training and advanced support. Do you have an application that has been causing issues for you? Ready to take your tooling knowledge to the next level? We are here for you, whether in person or virtually, we will develop training on topics specific to your needs. Reach out to your local Sales Engineer for more details.

Free Online Resources

Wilson Tool has a vast library of resources that are available to you for free on demand. Click here to explore our library of videos, flyers, webinars and more!

As your business begins to recover from the COVID-19 pandemic, we are here ready to provide the tooling and services needed for you to be the best in the world. We are all in this together.

Best Regards,

Chris Lawless
